

Concrete Timbre, Inc. is proud to present a reading of Acting Mad is a full-length madcap farce that explores what happens when a school of acting opens up next door to an outpatient psychiatric clinic. Prepare yourself for actors pretending to be crazy, crazies trying to stay sane, and a psychiatrist losing her grip on reality.

Written and directed by:

Paul Joseph Gulino

Produced by:

Nancy Greening

Performed by:

- Fedly Daniel.....Johnny Prince, an actor and self-centered prima donna.
- Helene Galek.....Dr. Samantha Thomas, a highly competent and professional clinical psychologist.
- Doyle Brand.....Charlie Mullins, a visionary acting teacher. Owner of the Mullins Acting School and proponent of the Mullins Method of acting.
- Jacqueline Schreiber.....Claudia, a devoted actress and student of Charlie.
- Kamaria Williams.....Zoey Pierson, a devoted actress. Student and girlfriend of Charlie.
- Darold Cuba.....Wyatt, an idealistic volunteer intern at the clinic.
- Paul Gulino.....Arthur Davenport, a confused and highly suggestible would-be mental patient at the clinic.
- Cely Riva.....Olivia, a psychopath extraordinaire.
