About the Artists

Aleksandra Miglowiec is a flutist and piccolo-ist. Her favorite things to do include experiencing other cultures and perspectives, finding unifying threads in seemingly opposing traditions, and melting into the realm of musical co-creation.

Robert Morton, I am a geek. There, I said it. I love to figure out the art of new programs and gadgets. I like the word obsession. I still yearn to discover the espresso ottimo, bend the perfect blues note on my Fender, compose the Eiffel Tower in some imaginative way, capture the morning light, and see it with my own eyes!

Milica Paranosic has established herself as one of New York's finest and most daring composers, performance artists, producers, and technologists. Praised by The New York Times as "Amazing... astonishing", Milica strives to create new sound worlds in which contrasting concepts vividly coexist in unique textures.

Ann Warren walks through the streets of NYC and takes the clangs of construction, the sporadic beep beep of horns, the whirring of some type of unidentified machine that never seems to stop, then mixes in some occasional cabbie shouting expletives, the bass thump thump thump from a car passing in the night, the bar or stadium cheers for Derek Jeter's home run and..., and is surrounded by music!

Coming in October..., Un Lieu de Vie, an experiential piece that is loosely based on the 1917 Jean Cocteau-Erik Satie-Pablo Picasso collaboration of Parade. It represents the collective memory of Erik, an eccentric, memory-starved, and lonely senior citizen who seeks glimpses of the past as he wanders the streets of New York. Through Erik's rumination, we are transported to specific locales at various stages of his life. We experience Erik's memories through the clamor of sounds, sights, and rhythms that embolden him to fulfill his destiny. Details to be announced soon!
